Coxeyites Attacked by U. S. Marshals.

BLOODY ENCOUNTER AT BILLINGS

The Marshals Overpowered—The Industrials Resume Their Journey East.

TACOMA, Wash., April 25.—A special to the Ledger from Allen C. Mason, a prominent citizen of Tacoma, who was at Billings this morning on the westbound train, says: "About 1 o'clock this morning the Coxey contingent from Butte, 600 strong, wearing tri-color badges, rolled into Billings on eleven freight cars loaded on top and inside, and with flags flying, followed closely by a train containing United States marshals. The west-bound passenger train was laid out thirteen hours, fencing to run up against them, and for safety went on a side track half a mile below the town. The Coxey train is apparently having its own way.

At Columbus the railroad officials had obstructed the track last night, but the Coxeyites removed the obstructions, pulled through and replaced them. On arriving at Billings, the leader, Cunningham, from the top of the rear car, was addressing the large crowd collected there, when about fifteen marshals marched past to capture the engine. The crowd surged forward and around the marshals, while the Coxeyites, from their train, guyed the marshals, warning them to commit no violence. The engineer, though under cover of rifles, refused to leave the cab, when bang, ten or a dozen times, went the rifles.

The Coxeyites charged and wrested most of the guns from the marshals, who retreated under protection of their revolvers, firing occasionally. "Kill them!" "Hang them!" shouted the Coxeyites, who saw one of their crowd on top of the train with blood streaming from a wound on his forehead. Several deputies ran, followed by the crowd, hurling stones and hitting several of the deputies, who were driven back to the train, narrowly escaping violent death. The Coxeyites smashed the captured rifles in pieces over the railroad rails. The action of the marshals in shooting in the miscellaneous crowd is severely condemned as foolhardy. One citizen was shot through the lungs, but will recover.

There were no fatalities. One man was shot through his vest over the heart, having a narrow escape. The Billings people furnished the Coxeyites with an abundant supply of provisions, and after speeches by the leaders, Cunningham and Hogan, denouncing the deputies as murderers, they violently captured a fresh engine and pulled out for the east, claiming the right of way. There was a live rooster on the engine, and a score of flags were flying. They expect no trouble with the United States troops at Fort Keogh. There is no drunkenness. The deputy marshals remained at Billings. It is a wonder that many were not killed.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 25.—A Miles City special to the Dispatch says: The Montana contingent of Coxey's army will not go further out than Fort Keogh. The army is now at Billings and a dispatch just received here says they captured seventy-five United States marshals, who followed them from Butte. Superintendent Finn of the Montana division will attend to the stopping of the train at Fort Keogh. Hogan, who is in command of the Coxeyites, wired Finn that he would want his private car to go east from Miles City and that Finn be on hand to explain his interruption in the program. The garrison at Fort Keogh consists of 500 men with gatling battery, and Colonel Page will execute all orders. The probabilities are that the army will be returned to Butte under military escort. Private advices to this city state in the fight between the deputies and Coxeyites no one was killed, but three or four were injured.

ST. PAUL, April 26, 1 a.m.—It is reported in this city that the commonweal army on the Montana stolen train has been captured.

HELENA, Mont., April 25.—Deputy marshals attempted to arrest Coxey's army near Billings today. A fight ensued, but no one was killed. The deputies are reported to have been overpowered by the Coxeyites.

HELENA, Mont., April 25.—At 11 o'clock tonight Hogan's Butte contingent of the commonweal army was thirty miles from Fort Keogh, where the United States army authorities, United States marshals and railroad officials are making preparations to stop the train and arrest the commonweal leaders. Colonel Page, in command at Fort Keogh, has ordered all his white soldier to their posts, and even the company of Sioux Indians has been ordered in readiness. Colonel Page says the commonwealers shall not pass Fort Keogh. It is believed Hogan's men will make the attempt late tonight.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 25.—Fry's army captured a Vandalia freight train this afternoon a few miles out of Terre Haute.

WASHINGTON, April 25 — President Cleveland tonight received a telegraphic communication from Governor Rickarts of Montana, stating the facts of a fight at Billings between the commonwealers and United States marshals, and also stating the Coxeyites were now beyond pursuit by the state militia. The governor calls upon the President to stop and arrest the men at Fort Keogh, and if they pass that point to order the federal troops in pursuit.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 25. — Dispatches received here early this morning state the Butte contingent of Coxey's army was captured at Forsythe, Montana at 10 o'clock Wednesday night. No blood was shed, the men submitting to arrest very quietly. The successful termination of the affair was due to the very clever maneuvers on the part of Colonel Page, who, on learning that the industrial train was delayed by lack of water, secured a special train and took them by surprise.

A Town Burned.

TRUCKEE, April 25.—Floriston, a railroad town situated a few miles east of Truckee, was laid in ashes early this morning. The fire started from a defective flue in Simonds' boarding house about 4:30 o'clock. The wind was high and the flames spread rapidly, sweeping everything before them the entire length of the town. A fire train from Truckee was sent to Floriston as soon as possible, but arrived there too late to be of much service. The estimated loss is $25,000.

Odd Fellows' Day.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—Tomorrow will be Odd Fellows' day at the Midwinter Fair. The fair officials have reduced the admission to 25 cents for the occasion. An excellent program has been arranged, which will be preceded by a grand parade through the streets of the fair grounds to festival hall, where the director general will address those present. He will be followed in short speeches by Governor Markham and Grand Master J. F. Thompson. In the afternoon there will be a competitive drill of the patriarch militant for valuable prizes, and a grand display of fireworks will end the day.

A Populist Caucus.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The Populist senators and representatives in congress were in caucus tonight at the Populist headquarters from 8:30 until 10 o'clock to reach an understanding as to the Populist attitude towards the on-coming Coxey army. While there was no indorsement of the movement, the speakers urged that it was legitimate, and a natural outcome of national legislation. Senator Stewart urged with his usual vigor that "gold anarchists" were responsible for the popular uprising.

The Native Sons.

EUREKA, Cal., April 25.—The grand parlor of the Native Sons resumed its session today. A resolution, making San Francisco the permanent place of meeting for the grand parlor, was referred to the next grand parlor. San Jose was chosen for the place in which the next grand celebration will be held. The delegates will start for San Francisco at 5 o'clock Saturday morning.

Officers Elected.

OAKLAND, April 25.—The California Woman's Relief Corps today elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Irene Gibson of Oakland; senior vice president, Mrs. Maude McCullough of Auburn.

WELCOME SHOWERS

VISIT THE DROUGHT STRICKEN COUNTRY.

The Rainfall Is Not Sufficient, However, to be of Great Benefit.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—Reports to the Associated Press today from various parts of northern and central California are to the effect that rain fell in showers during last night and today, and the reports for continuance are good. The rain will be of vast benefit to the grain, though considerable damage has already been done by the fifty days of drought, particularly west of the San Joaquin.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The Associated Press has received reports from numerous places in northern California, all showing that today's showers were most welcome.

At Lakeport .36 of an inch fell and the farmers are praying for more. Ukiah got .37 of an inch, enough to insure a hop crop and help along the grain. At Sonoma warm showers fell all day, much to the delight of the farmers and dairymen, as feed of all kinds had stopped growing. Dunsmuir had rain all day, which turned to snow at night, but the weather is not cold enough to damage the fruit. Chico had a hail storm which damaged the apricots and cherries, but not enough to hurt. Corning got one shower, which was not enough. Petaluma had little rain and wants more. Some fruit is rained, but the crop will be immense. Oakdale got .54 of an inch and makes no complaint. At Gilroy a quarter of an inch of rain fell, the drops of which were as precious as flakes of gold. Feed and grain were greatly benefited. It rained all day at Sonora, helping the crops along immensely. All fears of a drought vanished at Martinez and good crops are assured by today's rain.

From the indications tonight the chances for a general rain are few. At best but a few showers more are possible from the storm, and these will be in the Sacramento valley. If the storm moves southeast, as it appears, it will shower on Friday in Southern California.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS

Resolutions Presented in the House Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—In the senate today Allen of Nebraska again brought forward his resolution, reciting that a large number of peaceably inclined unemployed citizens are about to assemble in Washington to petition the government for relief, and that threats had been made to use the militia to prevent them carrying out their purpose. The resolution closes with the declaration that these men are only exercising their constitutional right, and an order that they be allowed to peaceably assemble without interference by the district authorities. Objection was made, and under the rules the resolution went over.

Senator Peffer today introduced another bill to provide work for the unemployed in the District of Columbia. The bill provides for the improvement of the public grounds of Washington by laying out and making walks and wagon ways and by the opening up of highways wherever needed in the district, and for the improvement of those already provided. The work is to be done under the supervision of a commission composed of the senate and house committee on the District of Columbia, with Senator Hartis as its chairman.

Persons in the district who have no other employment are to be employed at wages of $1.50 per day of eight hours, and $1,000,000 will be appropriated.

The Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Senator Brice is authority for the statement that a compromise on the tariff bill has been agreed upon, which is reasonably certain to be adopted by congress early in June. It will take the form of the committee amendments to the pending bill, making a reduction of about 30 per cent from the McKinley law.

The Markets.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—Wheat—Steady; December, $1.16½; spot, seller season, $1.12; May, $1.11½.

Barley—Steady; December, $1.18¾.

Corn—$1.32½.

Bran—$19.00 per ton.

Republican State Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 25.—The Republican state convention met today and nominated candidates for minor state officers. The convention was addressed by ex-President Harrison.

Elected Department Commander.

OAKLAND, April 25.—Judge W. M. Walling of Nevada City was today elected department commander of the G. A. R. of California.

GONE OUT OF BUSINESS

Pacific Improvement Company Sells Out.

ITS DAYS OF USEFULNESS OVER

Surmises As to the Cause of the Transaction—Valuable Property.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The Call says: By an action of the board of directors of the Pacific Improvement Company at their meeting yesterday it was decided to place the property, valued at from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000, in charge of the land department of the Central Pacific road for disposal. The Pacific Improvement Company and the Southern Pacific, although organized under different charters, are practically one and the same, as the stock of both corporations is owned in great part by the same persons. Various reasons are surmised for the selling out of the Pacific Improvement Company. One is that Mrs. Stanford, who is a heavy stockholder, is anxious to secure a large amount of ready cash in order to carry out the wishes of her late husband. Another reason is that the affairs of the Pacific Improvement Company have not been prosperous lately and that its days of usefulness as an auxiliary of the Southern Pacific have passed.

The officers of the company, however, deny that its intention is to dissolve the corporation. The sale will include considerably over 125,000 acres of land scattered over the states of California, Oregon, Nevada and Utah. Some of it is improved, and some of it is not. Also included in the list are 125 townsites, comprising such places as Reno, Truckee, Corning, Willows, Montague, Merced and others on the lines of the Southern Pacific and branches. Near Santa Barbara are 4000 acres, and Siskiyou county are 32,500 acres, 1500 of which are under fence. The great hotel Del Monte at Monterey will also probably be placed on the market, though this is not yet decided upon. The property at Monterey comprises 14,000 acres. Pacific Grove and El Carmelo, near Monterey, and a big hotel at Castle Crags, near Mt. Shasta, will also be sold.

FIRE INSURANCE.

The New Book of Rates Received. Reductions Made.

The book containing the new fire insurance rates has been received by the various agents of this city. The new rates went into effect on the 21st instant. An examination of the book shows that on the whole the rates are lower than before the 50 per cent increase.

The 50 per cent increase, by the way, has been done away with altogether, but the three-quarter clause still remains in force. This clause provides that the company shall not be held liable for more than three-quarters of the actual cash value of the property insured. That is to say, no property will be insured for over three-quarters of its value, but of course the whole amount of insurance will be paid so long as it does not exceed three-quarters of the value of the property.

In the new book there is a reduction of rates on residence property, and a slight reduction on brick blocks where the conditions are favorable. The rate on rows of frame structures is higher, as is that on stables and barns. Hotel rates have also been raised.

In the circular accompanying the new book the union states that the improved facilities of this city for fighting fires have been taken into consideration in fixing the new rates.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The Republicans to Open the Campaign Next Week.

The Republican state central committee will meet in San Francisco at Pioneer hall, on Fourth street, near Market, on Thursday, May 3, 1894, at 2 o'clock p. m., to fix the time, place and apportionment of delegates and issue a call for the next Republican state convention.

An invitation is extended to members of the party to be present to witness the important proceedings, which will be the beginning of the next campaign. A large attendance is expected.

Noble Bros.' Raisins.

The well-known raisin growers and packers, Noble Bros. of this city, have received notification from the World's Fair awarding committee that the medal and diploma awarded their raisin exhibit will be forwarded within a short time. The diploma will read as follows: "This exhibit grades very high, being perfect in most essential qualities. The berries are large, thin skinned, of fine flavor and color. The seeds are small and few, the clusters large and well cured, being rich in saccharine. The packing is superior."

Arrivals From Iowa.

J. C. Vaughn and family of Sioux City, Iowa, have arrived in Fresno and will make their home in the National colony, on a place recently bought by Mr. Vaughn. It required two cars to bring their effects from their old home in Iowa. One car contained some very fine live stock, while the other was filled with household furniture, farming implements, etc. Mr. Vaughn's family, besides his wife, consists of three grown sons and two daughters. They are substantial people and a welcome addition to the county's population.

The ecclesiastical council called to consider the charges made by the Armenian members of the Congregational church against the pastor, were unable to meet yesterday, as a number of clergyman had not yet arrived. They expect to convene this morning, however.

Sperry's best family flour has led all others for forty years.

THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

Plans Considered by the Board of Education.

The board of education was a very busy body yesterday. They met at 2 o'clock in the afternoon to consider the plans and specifications submitted for the new High school building. They continued in session until late in the afternoon, and as all the plans had not been inspected the board adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock in the evening. The board took the plans under consideration, and will meet on Friday evening, when they hope to agree upon and adopt one of them.

There were thirteen sets of plans submitted by San Francisco, Los Angeles and local architects, all of whom were present. Each architect was allowed twenty minutes to explain his plans, and during the explanation all competitors were excluded from the room. Some exhibited very elaborate drawings of perspectives in water colors, while others showed them in pen and ink work. In advertising for plans the board made a number of general requirements that they wished incorporated in the building, and some of the architects showed remarkable ingenuity in arranging these.

The board has a first-class assortment of plans to choose from, and will no doubt reach a decision Friday evening.

Is It Right?

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—In my letter published in yesterday's issue under the above heading, it was not my purpose to criticise the methods which our county officials have adopted to suppress or to prevent crime, but to bring before the public mind the incidents there related in order to prompt the thoughtful and the wise to labor for a higher and a better civilization.

WORKER.

FRISCO POLITICS.

THE FEDERAL BRIGADE NOT UNITED.

How Good Cometh Out of Galilee—The Gubernatorial Fight.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—There is a rather peculiar condition of things in this city at the present time. Of course, this has reference to politics. There is a lack of combination in the federal brigade. In fact, they have lost the combination so essential to harmony. The only Cleveland wing is operated by Colonel John P. Irish, and he never loses an opportunity to roast the other wings with a scorching blast. Wise sits at the seat of customs with conservative moderation, and is a party by himself. He is not in touch with Irish, English or Daggett, and is careful of his words. English is not a very able man at best, and fears his more powerful associate who is over him and has to adjust his accounts, and Irish watches him. It is an unpleasant position for one to occupy who is not there particularly for his health, and there is gnashing of teeth. Daggett is not surrounded by the most genial companions, but he is an honest old miner who believes in silver and would like to coin it into the "dollars of our daddies."

These things, existing as they do at this time, have a depressing effect upon the activities of the Democracy, and the action of the Iroquois club in denouncing Hill and Geary has opened wide the floodgates of vituperation. It is not strange just now to hear men gritting their teeth when a procession of unemployed marches along the streets with the stars and stripes uplifted, placards in their hands scoring the bondholders and gold bugs and demanding more money and a revival of industries. Occasionally some very curt motto is appended, such as, "Where are those good times, Grover?" "The banks are full of gold and the people starving."

It is an extraordinary state of affairs and the people realize the fact that it is "a condition, and not a theory" that confronts them. With one-half of the money destroyed by the absolute demonetization of silver, the circulating medium is fast disappearing, and while we are assured by the President that times are gradually growing better, the unemployed are becoming more numerous and pinches of poverty are coming closer together. The fact is, the first bolt of the crisis was stunning, and the only relief has been in tolerance. Poverty, like vice, becomes more friendly by contact, and the end has not yet come.

When the voter comes to the polls next November he will record his sentiments. No matter whether the party in power caused the stringency and paralyzed our industries or not, it will have to suffer the consequences. To a great extent it is responsible, for it made the promises and has not kept them. That is sufficient for the average American, and he is no fool. The man who says he is bad better not run for office.

The coming campaign will be one of interest. San Joaquin will be in it. Who could have imagined that the little village of Grayson, in the deep-dyed Democratic county of Stanislaus, would ever show up the timber for a Republican governor? But so it will be, and the other fellows all crane their necks and ask: "Can any good thing come out of Galilee?" The modest, the brainy, the honest J. R. McDonald, is already to the front, and his only danger will be in having the field against him. There will be plenty of aspirants, for the times are ominous, and everything looks so Republican that it breeds ambition. This is a dangerous position to occupy, but the bosses will be watched, and care must be taken that it is not a "yellow-dog" ticket.

The fair is moving onward without any particular enthusiasm. DeYoung has dropped his senatorial notion. He smilingly says that he has discovered that he is "the most unpopular man in the state." In politics, yes. He has struck it hard; but aside from that he can wear the belt for energy.

A GOOD MEASURE.

One of the important measures now awaiting action in congress is a bill designed to make better citizens of immigrants coming to this country, and to lessen the number of undesirable additions to our population. This bill was introduced by Hon. Wm. A. Stone of Pennsylvania, and has been favorably reported to the house by the judiciary committee.

In addition to present requirements of law, the immigrant is compelled by this bill to secure from the consul or other representative of the United States, nearest the immigrant's last place of residence, a certificate, showing that the representative has made an investigation concerning the immigrant, and that the immigrant is not one of those excluded from this country under its present laws or any law that may be adopted. The following, quoted from the report of the judiciary committee, will give some of the reasons why every citizen should favor this measure:

The purpose of this bill is to prevent the criminals and paupers of Europe from being sent here as immigrants. Statistics show that much too large a proportion of the immigrants now coming here are incapable of self support. By the last census, the per cent of persons born in foreign countries is 14.87 per cent, and yet this census shows that 26 per cent of the white prisoners confined in jails and simple prisons are persons of foreign birth. The total number of persons in our penitentiaries whose birth place is known is 28,440, composed of 13,715 native born and 14,725 foreign born, showing that more than one-half of all our white convicts are of foreign birth. Our benevolent institutions contain 69,962 inmates by the last census, of which the foreign born compose 24 per cent. The total number of the white inmates of our poor houses is 53,696, of which number 27,048, or a little over 51 per cent, were born in foreign countries. These statistics show that with a foreign population of 14.77 per cent, more than half of our white penitentiary convicts and more than half of the white inmates of our poor houses are foreigners, and prove that of the immigrants coming here during the past few years, too many of them are deficient in morals, and are incapable physically of self support. Foreign countries not only encourage immigration of criminals and paupers, but use public money to pay their expenses here. This fact seems to be a sufficient reason why so large a percentage of immigrants soon find themselves in our prisons and poorhouses. The means adopted have been found wholly inadequate to keep out of the country those really included in the excluded list. The superintendent of immigration states that during the six months ending December 31, 1893, 183,028 immigrants arrived, and 1258 of them were debarred as failing within the list excluded by the law; less than 1 per cent. The examination on the arrival of the immigrants must necessarily be wholly insufficient to determine whether the immigrant belongs to the excluded class or not, and in many instances where the immigrant has made the long journey to the place of examination, and perhaps has expended his all in the undertaking, sympathy overcomes the doubts as to his eligibility, and he is admitted. Under the present system the immigrant's word has to be taken for most of the inquiries, and there is no means of refuting him if he answers untruthfully. This change strikes at no nationality, but simply at the class of incapables of all nations who can be only a burden to us, and whose moral and social influence can do us much harm.

Referring to the cool assurance of the administration in dictating the terms upon which it will permit the seigniorage to be coined, the Chronicle says: "There is a large mass of idle silver lying in the treasury which a majority of congress believed should be coined into dollars, and acting on this belief, congress passed a law authorizing its coinage, which Cleveland vetoed. It was found impossible to pass a bill over the President's veto. Now comes Congressman Meyer, a full-fledged cuckoo, straight from the White House, with a proposition that the so-called seigniorage may be coined, provided congress will confer upon the secretary of the treasury the power to issue a fresh batch of bonds. Of course, if this power were conferred, it would be instantly abused by Cleveland and his secretary of the treasury, who are apparently aching for a chance to increase the interest paying debt of the country, so that capital may find a safe investment. That was the object of the recent $50,000,000 bond issue, for when Carlisle made the call there was a free working balance of over $80,000,000 in the treasury. His act was an outrage, and will be resented by the people when they come to fully appreciate the enormity of unnecessarily increasing the interest-bearing debt of the country."

The Evening Expositor continues to be in a state of mind regarding the statement of Professor Sanders that Deputy District Attorney Walser represented to him that Wootton's body had been found. At the conclusion of a paroxysm last evening it said: "The Republican, too, can hardly afford to have its reputation as a reliable journal brought into question in this way by Mr. Walser without going to the bottom of the matter. There's a very damaging lie out. Let's see who uttered it." The Republican's reputation has not been brought into question by Mr. Walser or anybody else. Professor Sanders made the statement in question and it was published in this paper. Mr. Walser was absent at the time, but upon his return he denied positively that he made the statement attributed to him by Sanders. The question of veracity in a case of that sort would appear to be so plain that the most stupid could not fail to understand it. This paper has nothing to do with the matter except to print the news, which is often a source of annoyance to its esteemed contemporary.

Farmers of irrigated land have the opportunity to make more money this year than any other class of citizens. Fruit will not only bring good prices, but all sorts of crops for feed, which can yet be planted and brought to maturity, are certain to bring profitable prices. The man who has land and water at his command and does not take advantage of the opportunity is certainly improvident and unworthy of the advantage which he enjoys.

It is just possible that the correspondent who writes protestingly about the odors emanating from a slaughter house is mistaken. He may have got to the windward of the garlic investigation, or one of the political corpses which the evening journal is undertaking to galvanize into semblance of life.

California is having fiestas this season instead of picnics. The only difference, excepting the name, is that tamales and redlicker are given the place of honor instead of sandwiches and beer.

A VISION OF Wonderland

The Little Brownies,

Those mischievous but kindly children immortalized in nursery tales, have been recently reported as taking a tour of the wild and picturesque scenery of America. The idea was long delayed, and undoubtedly came to them through a chance examination of the most wonderful and beautiful publication of the age, the magnificent pictographic scenic serial, entitled

Glimpses of America,

Which THE REPUBLICAN is now distributing among its patrons. It is a sad commentary upon popular taste that Americans know less about the scenery of their own country than of that of European lands, probably because travel in the far west has not been attended with such comforts as journeys through the old countries. But no reason is longer available to excuse ignorance of the INCOMPARABLE, THE IMPRESSIVE, THE TRULY MARVELOUS SCENERY of our wondrously diversified country, because "Glimpses of America" is a photographic album, comprising the grandest pictures of the most sublime objects that the human eye ever beheld.

You Can Get

"Glimpses of America" only through THE REPUBLICAN, but upon the following remarkably generous conditions: Send or bring to this office one coupon clipped from THE DAILY REPUBLICAN, together with ten cents, and we will deliver to you Part I over our ourcounter or have the same mailed to your address without further expense. The complete work comprises 32 parts, or 512 pages 11x13½ inches in size, and will be embellished with 550 superb photo-engravings. The photographs alone in this remarkable collection, if they were on sale, could not be purchased or less than $500.

Every American Who Loves His Country Should Possess One.

THEY are not woodcuts or sketches, but large and perfect photographs of actual scenes, bewilderingly magnificent, imposing sights of the Rocky Mountains, the peaks, canyons, waterfalls, valleys, lakes and cataracts of that great continental range and of equally wondrous views on the great plains, Pueblo villages, burning deserts, immense forests, marvels of the Yosemite, picturesque but almost inaccessible regions of the Northwest, of Alaska's glaciers and Indian towns, of the Yellowstone Park geysers and curiosities, of Superior's sculptured shores and Wisconsin's romantic dells; of Canada and the cleavages, cascades, whirlpools and deep forests of the Northeast; of Eastern mountains, frothy streams, dashing rivers and great precipices; of dreamy, languorous scenes in the land of the flamingo, where the mocking bird hides in the perfume-laden snow of the orange tree and the sun kisses the banana into golden fruitage.

Every section of America is represented in this complet collection of photographs, and the pictures, instead of being imperfectly and clumsily described in brief foot-notes, as in other serials, are incorporated in the text, there being as much space devoted to reading matter in "Glimpses of America" as to illustrations. It is therefore a pictorial history of the charming scenery of our country, the most gorgeous, complete and eloquent that was ever prepared.

And Oh, The Cameragraphs!

No one ever saw such marvelous heliotype jewels as these.

They are specimens of the perfected process of photographing in natural colors—grand, glorious and beautiful beyond imagination. A series of these marvelous pictographic productions appear in "Glimpses of America," and they are to be seen in no other publication, the cost being too great as yet to admit of common use.

RUSSELL PERRY MACE

Funeral Ceremonies in Madera Yesterday.

HUNDREDS HONOR HIS MEMORY

Tributes by the Clergy—The Obsequies Conducted by Masons and Odd Fellows.

The last honors were paid to the remains of Captain R. P. Mace in Madera yesterday, and they were laid to rest in the city cemetery.

About forty persons, comprising old friends and members of the Masonic and Odd Fellow fraternities went down on the noon train to participate in the obsequies and assist in the sepulture.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the fraternal orders marched to the residence and the remains were taken to the Methodist church, where the funeral ceremonies were conducted by the Rev. Hyden, assisted by Rev. McElwe, Rev. Neil and Rev. Cornelius Yager.

The pallbearers, who were members of the Masonic and Odd Fellow orders, of both of which the deceased had long been a prominent and influential member, were A. R. Norther, Abe Cohen, Z. Drake, E. W. Child, H. C. Borden and W. E. Davis, with Dr. Lewis Leach, Captain Charles T. Badger, Hon. A. M. Clark, W. H. McKenzie, James McCardle and N. L. F. Bachman, as honorary pallbearers.

The remains were placed in the chancel of the church during the services. The chancel rail was completely covered with numerous and exquisitely beautiful floral designs of varied and elaborate patterns.

The choir of the church rendered music befitting the solemn occasion, and prayer was offered by Rev. Hyden. After the usual church services Mr. Hyden spoke of the character and career of Captain Mace. He was born in Boston, Mass., May 14, 1820, and from Louisiana served in the Mexican War of 1847 with the rank of captain, and paid a tribute to his services to his country in that memorable contest.

He came to California in 1849 and settled in this locality before Fresno county was created. He was a member of the Mexican Veterans' association of this state and of the California Pioneers society, and had served three terms in the state legislature with great acceptability.

Mr. Hyden then spoke of his services to Fresno county in its formation, when he became one of the best known men in the state, and such was his character and such the general respect for him that no one was ever known to offer him insult. He had as a citizen done much to shape the destiny of the county.

As a friend he had drawn to him men of all kinds and conditions to a degree that were they present on that sad occasion they would amount to an army. He was generous in extending aid and assistance to the needy, but never boasted either of his benefactions or the assistance he had given others.

No philanthropic enterprise had been started that did not have his sympathy and assistance first of all. In his quiet way he had extended aid in the erection of the churches of the town and had taken a lively personal interest in their welfare and success.

As a husband and father he had been kindhearted and indulgent and generous in his impulses and treatment of all the members of his family. His demeanor toward his adopted daughter was of the same kind, paternal character as that extended his own.

He spoke of the great loss to the family which was largely shared by the entire community who were alike bereaved.

Rev. McElwe spoke of the remarkable period in which Captain Mace lived, when to be an American citizen was greater than a king, and referred to him as one having the courage of his convictions and meeting the full measure of American citizenship. He paid a fitting tribute to him as one whose influence would be felt for years to come, and whose upright life was a model for imitation.

Rev. Neill spoke of his long and intimate acquaintance with Captain Mace and his great admiration for him. He had found him generous in encouraging and contributing to the erection of that church edifice, and a man whose sympathy and affection went out to all about him. He made touching allusion to the heartfelt sorrow of Captain Mace over the death of the speaker's daughter, the memory of which brought tears to the speaker's eyes.

Father Yager then spoke of his intimate acquaintance and high regard for him as a member of the Masonic order, where he had seen much of him and honored his consistent course and revered his memory.

The remains were then viewed by the great concourse of people, the half of whom had not been able to get into the church during the services. The remains were then placed in the hearse, and the procession, led by the Odd Fellows, the Masons following, took up the march to the cemetery, where the usual ceremonies over the grave took place.

The members of the fraternal orders numbered about 150 persons. The hearse followed these, and was followed by over 100 carriages with citizens. Owing to the great length of the ceremonies at the church most of the Fresno people were debarred from going to the cemetery, as the train passed through shortly after the cortege moved from the church.

Among those present to pay their last honors to Captain Mace were Captain C. T. Badger and Judge Spencer H. Hill, veterans of the Mexican war, and warm personal friends of long standing.

Captain Mace was a man of rare judgment and ability, with great force of character. He was of genial disposition, and though a great physical sufferer in his later years from rheumatism and obesity, his kindly manner never forsook him, nor was his personal magnetism abated. Indeed, the elements of well-balanced manhood were so in him mixed and his character and course through life such that naught said of him yesterday was set down in flattery. His family has the general sympathy in their bereavement, and Madera will indeed miss him.

DAMAGE SUIT ENDED.

C. C. Lyons Nonsuited Yesterday.

The damage suit brought by C. C. Lyons of this city against the firm of F. Knowles & Co., composed of Knowles, Abel Hosmer and W. W. Blanchard, came to a sudden termination yesterday.

The defendants had purchased a granite quarry near Raymond of Frank Dusy, and the plaintiff was engaged in loading stone on the cars two miles from the quarry on December 1, 1888. The hook in a tackle on the derrick broke, letting a heavy granite block fall on his left foot.

The foot had to be amputated as a result of the injury, and Mr. Lyons brought suit for damages on the ground of the defendants' negligence, and recovered a judgment of $2000. On appeal to the supreme court this was reversed, and the case sent back for a new trial.

At the close of the evidence offered by the plaintiff yesterday the counsel for the defendants moved for a non-suit on several grounds, which were argued and finally the court granted the motion. It went off on the point that there was no evidence to show that the defendants had any knowledge of the defect in the machinery, and that the plaintiff had a better opportunity to know the condition of the machinery than did the defendants, and therefore there was no negligence in law on the part of the defendants. The ruling of Judge Harris was in line with the decision of the supreme court.

THOSE KIOSKS.

THE OBJECTIONS URGED AGAINST THEM.

Why the City Trustees Should Not Grant the Company a Franchise.

The application of the Pacific Kiosk Company for a franchise permitting it to erect kiosks on the street corners of this city for advertising purposes, will soon come up again before the city trustees. In the meantime the company has been requested to put one up so that the people may see what kind of a thing it is.

The company has represented its kiosks as things of beauty and a joy forever—at least to the proprietors, who expect to get quite a revenue for the sale of advertising space. Everybody knows how attractive an advertisement looks on a fence or a wall, and can judge how ornamental these kiosks will be.

There is a suspicion, besides, that behind this advertising pretense there is a scheme to establish stands at these kiosks for the sale of candy, lemonade, notions, cigars, etc., to the detriment of those established in such businesses and paying licenses therefor.

Another objection to the kiosks, and a serious one, is that they will obstruct the streets. There is an ordinance prohibiting merchants from erecting any advertising device on the sidewalks of this city, and no good reason can be given why the Pacific Kiosk company should be granted a privilege that has been denied people who are in business here and pay taxes.

The company has made applications for franchises in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland and Fresno, and will probably try to get franchises in other cities. So far, however, it has met with determined opposition in every place where a franchise has been asked for.

The franchise the company asks for is a valuable one, or it would not be willing to go to such great expense in putting up the kiosks and light them by electricity at night. Being a valuable franchise and one that will enrich the people promoting the enterprise, there is no reason, if granted at all, why they should not be made to pay a good round sum for it.

However, there appears to be no probability that the franchise will be granted under any conditions, as the business men and property owners are strongly opposed to the kiosks.

MAN'S PERFIDY.

A LOS ANGELES LADY ITS VICTIM.

She Accuses a Fresno Man of Trifling With Her Affections.

Miss Alexander of Los Angeles has an aching heart, caused by a faithless lover, and she is wondering whether the inconstant one has enough of this world's goods to make it worth while trying to compel him to pay for the damage he has done her feelings.

The man is J. W. F. Miller of this city. On the evening of April 13th he appeared before Justice Austin with Mary Howe and bashfully asked the justice to tie the nuptial knot. The ceremony was performed with the expedition customary in justices' courts, and Austin pocketed the fee with the usual consciousness of a duty well performed.

After the ceremony Miller asked that the marriage be kept quiet for a few days, but gave no reason for the strange demand. The justice informed Miller that the matter was one of public record, and he could not prevent any one from seeing the license. Miller represented himself to be a native of Wisconsin, aged 40 years, and Miss Howe a native of Kentucky, aged 31.

The marriage was mentioned in The Republican the day following, and it was probably in this paper that Miss Alexander of Los Angeles first learned of the faithlessness of the man upon whom she bestowed the wealth of her affections. Justice Austin wondered at the time why Miller was so anxious to keep the marriage secret, but the following letter, which he received Monday from Miss Alexander, explains Miller's anxiety:

Justice Austin:—Will you please as a friend, let me hear from you on this subject? April 12th did you marry J. W. F. Miller to Mary Howe? As I have more right to Miller than any one on this earth, I think it right for me to know. I know Mr. Miller by slight acquaintance only, by corresponding. We have corresponded for more than one year and a half, and we were to be married in a short time. All this would show any one that he entirely belongs to me, and no one else, and what is the cause of this marriage with another? I surely have the right to know why at the last moment he has another.

The 9th of this month I had a letter telling me he was always to me a true man, and hoping how soon the time would come that we should be made a happy couple. 'Tis more than I can bear. Will you please let me hear all the particulars of him and what kind of a man is Miller, and what is he doing, and is he worth anything? The reason our wedding was put off was on account of his being out of work, so he told me; and he has always been true to me in our correspondence, so I did not doubt anything he told me, for he's always proved himself a true gentleman.

Did he marry a nice girl; please tell me all. Could I have anything done with him if he is wo th fooling with? I only hope he will see his mistake. He has taken another who has no right to him. God helping me. Please be a friend and let me hear all about him and you shall be rewarded by me for all your troubles. As his letter goes to prove that I am the only woman that he ever loved or cared for and why this has happened I cannot understand. Let me know what can be done, for surely in this case there can be something. Please let me hear all and oblige, Miss Alexander.

Los Angeles, April 21, 1894.

Justice Austin has answered Miss Alexander's letter, giving the required information, and to console the lady of the city of angels told her that so far as he could judge Miss Howe had got the worse of the bargain.

THEY WANT TO VOTE.

A Woman's Suffrage Club Organized in This City.

A number of ladies interested in woman suffrage met in DeWitt hall yesterday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a woman's suffrage club. Mrs. C. G. Sayle presided, and appointed Mrs L. E. Mead secretary pro tem.

The chairman read the prospectus sent out by the State Suffrage Association, then stated the object of the meeting, after which the meeting was thrown open for the discussion of the subject. The enthusiasm was very pronounced, and not one moment was lost during the time set for discussion.

One lady, who is among the largest taxpayers in the county, had driven in twenty-two miles to attend the meeting. We regret that every voter in the county could not have been there to hear this woman's earnest talk, as she recounted the heavy burdens of her taxation of $2300 a year and no representation.

In the meeting were represented business as well as professional women. Many earnest addresses were made, after which thirty-four persons signed the roll. The following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. C. G. Sayle; vice presidents, Mrs. Dr. Schermerhorn and Mrs. H. Hinman; recording secretary, Mrs. L. E. Mead; treasurer, Mrs. Fannie Wood.

The following ladies were elected delegates to attend the Woman's Congress, which meets in San Francisco on April 30th: Mesdames Hinman, Schermerhorn and Mead. It was decided to leave the charter open until after the next meeting, which will be in about two weeks. Due notice will be given in the papers. F. W.

A RICH POLICEMAN.

His Large Possessions in Fresno County.

Police Clerk Hall, who was removed from his position on the San Francisco force a few days ago for malfeasance, has accumulated considerable property by his crooked methods. The Examiner says:

The value of Hall's farm near Fowler, in Fresno county, is estimated at over a hundred thousand dollars. A man who has a farm adjoining that of Hall said last night that the ex-clerk has in all 250 acres, worth $200 an acre, making the value of the land itself about $50,000. The tract is mostly under cultivation, a large portion being in raisin grapes. As improved, Hall's neighbor said he thought the land was worth $300 an acre. The horses, barns, machinery and other fixtures are worth considerable, Hall having spent from thirty to fifty thousand dollars in improvements.

Sanger Bank Dissolution.

The directors of the Sanger Bank filed an application with the clerk of the superior court yesterday to be permitted to dissolve the corporation and close up the business.

THE WOOTTON CASE.

LETTERS FROM KNAUSCH TO SANDERS.

No News of the Missing Man or Trace of His Body.

While the Wootton case has not come to a standstill, there is little now with regard to it that tends to clear up the mystery.

At their recent visit to the Sanders ranch the officers brought away Sanders' diaries for a number of years, together with some books of account and other papers.

Among the latter were three letters from Knausch, one of which is withheld for prudential reasons, but the other two are as follows:

En Route to San Francisco, August 8, 1889.

Friend Will:—Yours received. I'll give you $20,000 for the 1——th 8. eighties. I don't want to see Mrs. Robinson; if she has Captain Howes' magnetism I don't care to have her talk up any scheme to me of which I know nothing. If she and Mrs. Crowe, Wootton and other rich people there will put in money enough to bore a mile deep I'll put in the $10,000, as I promised. What think you of enclosed? Less than $4 per foot for 4000 feet. At the same rate $40,000 should bore a mile. Will write fully when in city. Has that wife of yours gone yet? Sincerely yours, John Knausch.

Bakersfield, June 11, 1893.

Dear Will:—No time to write much; were on our way with horse and buggy up the foothills; want to see how much improvement in past three years.

It is a pile of money to put into that place, but the water is in the hill, and that means wealth and all the good things you predicted, we hope and believe.

The inclosed refers to the tunnel we told you about seeing the work being done on after we were at the fair. The Wootton hill promises a better result. Hope to be there 12th to 24th; meet us.

John Knausch.

Pasted to the lower part of this letter is a clipping from a newspaper as follows:

Last week the Hermosa Water Company, which has been tunneling for water in Deer canyon, made a "ten strike," says the Ontario Observer. The effort of the company to increase its water supply was rewarded by an additional flow of 100 inches. This is one of the richest strikes of the precious liquid that it has been our pleasure to record. Hermosa will permit much new territory to come under that irrigation system. With a water supply so abundant the permanency of Hermosa's prosperity is assured.

The following from the Visalia Delta is interesting as indicating the views entertained in that city. It says:

"F. M. Fell of the Visalia I.O.O.F. Lodge returned home Monday evening from a second search in the Reedley country for Wootton's body. He says there is no doubt in the mind of any in that vicinity that Wootton is dead, but there is absolutely not the faintest clew yet as to where the body is or who did the deed.

"Mr. Fell gives it as his opinion that the body of the old man has been buried in the bed of one of the large irrigating ditches around there. The water could have been diverted till the grave was dug and then turned on again. This theory, he claims, would explain the story first told by Mrs. Sanders that her husband came home the night of February 1st wet, muddy and highly excited, a story she has since denied.

"Mrs. Roody! I am in a terrible situation! What shall I do? My money is scarce, and I shall certainly need groceries soon." "Ha! ha! Why, you have plenty on hand. Just send to B. T. Scott's and you can buy more sugar, flour, hams and bacon with what you have than any place in California."

"Go it! Well, I should say we are, and to B. T. Scott's is the place we are bound for. If you don't believe it call in tomorrow and see the groceries we will bring back for $5."

"Hurry up, Sallie. It's getting late. We must get to B. T. Scott's to secure some of those cheap bargains in flour, sugar, milk, corn and hams. Don't forget to bring along Tooties' picture to have enlarged, as he throws in a $15 portrait free."

"Hold on, Patty! What's the matter with your eye?" "Oh, I was told to buy the groceries at B. T. Scott's, but did not, and you see now the condition my people left me in."

B. T. Scott has blown to the wind high prices on all lines of groceries, sugar, flour, hams out of sight.

Come one, go all to the leading grocer for low prices. B. T. Scott, Barton Opera house.

WOMEN COMPETING WITH MEN.

Men Must Make Up Their Minds That Women Are In Industry to Stay.

The example of the Brooklyn elevated railways in substituting women for men as ticket agents will very likely be followed in New York. It is said that, while the service of women in the Brooklyn offices is cheaper than that of men, it is not less efficient or less courteous. The Brooklyn managers say that they have taken account only of economy and utility.

Women have as good a right as men have to take any kind of honest work which they are able to perform or which they can secure. Within a few years past they have entered into hundreds of industries which had previously been followed by men alone, and we must suppose that they have found it to their advantage to do so. The unnumbered inventions of the age have opened up new fields of activity for them. The ever extending employment of machinery in production has enabled them to do things which formerly required such strength as is possessed by men alone. Even within 10 years there has been an immense increase in the number of women who are experts in skilled trades. Women clerks and counter waiters have supplanted men in thousands of establishments, wholesale and retail. There are several thousand feminine typewriters and telegraph operators in the city. Literary women are turning our books upon all subjects in rivalry with men, women teachers abound as never before, and we have seen a long list of female lecturers, all waiting to receive orders.

What are the men to do about it all? In the first place, they have been able to get along about as well as usual during the 10, 20 or more years in which women have been largely superseding them in many branches of activity.

In the second place, it is beyond the power of the men to keep women out of any industry which they wish to follow and in which they can earn the wages that they need. The men may as well make up their minds that this is a solemn fact. Men will have to turn their attention more than ever to those industries which they alone are capable of pursuing. There are lots of things which women cannot do as well as men and which must be done by the stronger sex. Then, again, there are hordes of bachelors who, if they were to marry, as they ought to do, could very speedily and largely reduce the competition of women in the labor market.

We guess that, as the saying goes, "things will adjust themselves" hereafter, as things are always pretty sure to do on this everchanging old earth.—New York Sun.

Share and Share Alike.

Rev. Charles G. Ames of Boston lately preached an excellent sermon on "Men's Religion and Women's Religion." In closing he said:

"We shall not always put asunder what God has joined together. An end is coming to the commercial divorce which keeps men from the work of the church and women from the work of the world. All burdens will be lighter when we bear them as a common load. All blessings will be doubled when we share together the spirit which blesses. All the good things of earth and heaven—let us mingle them in one cup of communion."

Remodelling a Skirt.

A simple way of adding fullness to a skirt of last season's cut is to put a half circular piece of a quarter of a yard in depth at the bottom. If you haven't material enough, then black moire will in most cases make a pretty contrast. A narrow trimming of silk braid or jet on the edge and at the seam where the pieces fit in the skirt makes a pretty finish. An odd sleeve which appeared on a black satin dress consisted of an immense puff below the shoulder, and into this was inserted some chine silk, with a cream ground daintily flowered.—New York News.

A Shoe Breaker.

In these days curious occupations are constantly developing. A late one is that of "shoe breaker." An English woman will, for half a crown a pair, take your new shoes and wear them long enough to take off the tight stiffness that new shoes are apt to have. It takes about three days to bring them to the happy condition of comfort which ports sing of, and in busy times she has as many as six pairs going at once, wearing each two hours every day.—London Letter.

Kansas Women In Politics.

Kansas will have four women candidates for local political office at elections to be held shortly. The Democrats of Kansas City, Kan., have nominated Mrs. Sarah Frame, a widow, and Mrs. Emma Scharff, the wife of a Union Pacific engineer, for members of the board of education. The Independents of Rosedale, Kan., have nominated two prominent W. C. T. U. women, Mrs. Fannie Hallsinger and Mrs. Fred Bush, for the board of aldermen.—Kansas City Times.

Little Joe.

Who is he? Do any persons in Fresno know anything of his history? If they do not they should, and I will tell them. Little Joe is a pretty little blue-eyed baby, about six weeks old, who has found a home where he is loved and welcomed by all who see him. He is at the orphans' home on O street, which is under the careful management of Mrs. Donleavey.

This same little baby has a mother somewhere, but society would not recognize her if she brought little Joe into its circles, or if she even made known his existence; so he must keep in the shade. Poor little fellow! he is not to blame for the wrong of his parents, nor for the blindness of this thing called society. Call and see him. Hoke Sorr.

LIVELY LETTERS.

J. W. REESE AND COLONEL HUNTINGTON EXCHANGE VIEWS.

Radical Divergence of Opinion on a Subject of Vital Importance to Both Parties.

The following letters are self explanatory and are interesting as expressing in very positive and somewhat personal terms the conflicting views of a producer and shipper and the head of the transportation company of this coast:

Fresno, March 5, 1894.

C. P. HUNTINGTON—Dear Sir:—I wish to call your attention to the fact that during the past summer something like 1000 cars of green fruit were shipped from this district, and upon this vast amount of tonnage we paid into your coffers the exorbitant rate of $500 per car for refrigerator service. A few growers received very small sums after paying freight and commission, but a large majority received back bills for balances on freight. Upon the whole not a dollar came back to the growers, while the transportation companies pocketed $500,000. Your rates on green fruits are unjust, unreasonable, and if maintained will utterly destroy the green fruit shipping business of this valley.

Now, Mr Huntington, you must realize the fact that you are a very old man, tottering on the verge of the grave, and cannot hope to live more than a few short years. A corrupt congress took from the pockets of the people fifty millions of money and gave it to you. You have used it as an engine of oppression, and for twenty years or more groans and cries of distress have been going up to you from the farmers of California, but you heeded them not. Now, don't you think if you would abandon your cold-blooded policy of taking all the farmer makes and give him a rate at which he could feed and clothe his little ones, that your deathbed would be a little softer? Why squeeze any more millions from helpless people? You can't take it with you. You have but a few short years at most, and when you are dead your millions will be fought over in the courts, or squandered by your son-in-law over the gambling tables of Europe.

I appeal to you for justice. Give us a rate that will open to us the markets of the world, stimulate immigration, and develop the resources of the richest state in the union, and you will leave a monument glorious and lasting.

Yours, etc. J. W. REESE.

San Francisco, March 10, 1894.

J. W. REESE, Esq., Fresno, Cal:—Dear Sir: I have your letter of the 4th inst., which I have carefully read. After reading it I have concluded that you do not know me as well as I know you, for I have known considerable of you, and knowing what I do, have come to the conclusion that you do not intend to do wrong, but that you have been wrongfully informed.

As far as the Southern Pacific company is concerned, I will say that we have made no money out of its building or operation up to this time. We put some money into the shares a number of years ago, on which we have received no returns, although we hope to, and believe we shall, at some future day. I do not, of course, make up the tariff rates, and there possibly may be some hardships to people in some localities, but the aggregate, as I have said, is not enough to pay us any profit, and I am told, on inquiry of our people, that they did not get more than $125.00 a car for moving last year's crop, which certainly could hardly pay the company. I do not pretend to know what the balance of the large amount you speak of was paid for, in ice and other expenses, but I do not doubt that the amount of money that the company received is correct as above stated.

I have been in business for myself many years, working an average of twelve hours each week day for the last fifty years, and I presume I have spent less money for things that were not absolutely necessary than Mr. Reese.

I expect to come up into the San Joaquin valley before I return east, and I shall then be glad to see and talk with you, if you care to do so. Notwithstanding that you are somewhat personal in your letter, I am satisfied, from what people tell me about you, that your heart is in the right place. Yours truly,

C. P. HUNTINGTON.

Fresno, March 20, 1894.

C. P. HUNTINGTON—Dear sir:—Your letter of March 20th is at hand, and carefully read. You say I do not know you as well as you know me, and knowing me as you do, have concluded that my heart is in the right place but my information is wrong. I have been a shipper over your road for fifteen years, and I am painfully conscious of the fact that my figures are correct, and that the complaints I have made from time to time about your unjust, unreasonable and prohibitory freight rates are fully justified by the facts in the case. Your present rates on green fruits and refrigerator service is unjust and unreasonable, and unless greatly reduced will destroy the fruit shipping interest in this valley.

You say that you have made no money out of the building or operation of the Southern Pacific up to this time. It would be hard to make the people of the interior believe this; but even if it is so, and you have only made running expenses, you are still many millions ahead on the sale of your watered stock, if you watered it like you did the so called Pullasky road, and as you expect to do the so called Monterey & Fresno road On the twenty miles of old iron and old rails laid down on the level plain from Fresno to Pollasky, you watered with bonds to the tune of $520,000, I believe.

Again, you say you do not make up the tariff rates and there may be some hardships in some localities. You are right. Hardships do exist in many localities, and the San Joaquin valley has borne a double share of those hardships. For the last fifteen or twenty years the people of this valley have been begging and praying for justice and fair dealing at the hands of your freight managers, but all in vain. It has been a pet saying of yours that if we would increase our tonnage you would reduce rates, but you maintain a rate that shuts us out from the markets and stops production.

You say that you have worked hard for fifty years and have spent less money for things not absolutely necessary than I have. That may be so, and you have piled up millions and millions by a system of heartless extortion that has brought destitution and suffering upon thousands of your fellow beings. But what is the good of it all, if you lie down and die and leave thousands to curse your memory, and none to shed a tear over your grave?

You say you are coming down here before you go back and would be pleased to see me and have a talk. If I thought I could persuade you to abandon your cold blooded policy of taking all a scattered population can make and substitute a policy of low freights and fares, a policy that would bring about the rapid development of the country and make money for you in the end, I should be very much pleased to meet you and have a talk with you. Yours respectfully,

J. W. REESE.

Where Hoodlums Congregate.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—I would like to call the attention of the police authorities, through the columns of THE REPUBLICAN, to the actions of a crowd of men who daily congregate in front of a certain cigar store near the J street entrance of the Fiske building. These fellows, who are mostly young hoodlums, with a sprinkling of the older gambling and pimp element, have made themselves disagreeably conspicuous during the past few days. They seem to take a delight in making insulting, obscene remarks in the hearing of ladies who are unfortunate enough to pass that way.

The place seems to be a regular rendezvous for this class. Complaints have often been made by the business men of the neighborhood, but somehow or other there is never any officer around when he is needed. The police should arrest those fellows as vags. I think three-fourths of them do nothing for a living but hang around saloons and gambling joints, and it would be easy enough to convict them of vagrancy.

BUSINESS MAN.

A ROACH IN HIS HEAD.

It Crawled Into the Man's Ear, Ate Its Way Through the Drum and Raised a Family.

A man with a nest of cockroaches in his head presented himself at the Emergency hospital in Washington recently.

Stories have often been told of snakes and frogs in human stomachs. An instance in regard to the habits of animals which is even more peculiar came to light about a week ago. Cases have often been noticed where bugs have entered the ear and caused excruciating pain by eating the delicate membranes and tissues of the inner ear before they could be driven out. But this is the first case where a roach was permitted to remain in the ear long enough to lay its eggs and hatch its young.

George Woods, who was the patient, a young man of about 20, is employed on an oyster boat. Like many other boats, this one was infested with big black cockroaches. One night while Woods was asleep a roach crept into his ear and lodged itself just far enough inside to be out of reach. Woods felt it there next morning, but being unable to poke it out with his finger he permitted it to remain, thinking her ronchship would take up her quarters and move out. But the roach, either because it got in head first and could not turn around and get out, or because it found the accommodations exceedingly comfortable, instead of getting out proceeded to make its nest right there in the man's ear. Finally it started to tunnel through the head. As it afterward was shown on investigation, the roach had eaten its way through the channel to the tympanum and through the drum itself. Here, it seems, it gave up investigations and from some cause or other died. When Wood found that he was deaf in the right ear, he thought he had better have the matter looked into, so he took advantage of his boat being in Washington to visit the hospital. When Dr. Johnson washed out the ear, in addition to the body of the defunct roach a number of little roaches and some eggs which had failed to hatch were removed.—Omaha Bee.

"Labby's" Opinion of Astor.

Far from having any objection to an American millionaire spending his money with us, I should be delighted if all large owners of house property in New York were to follow the example of Mr. Astor. I feel indeed personally obliged to him, for he provides me with a well edited magazine and newspaper, the latter, I should imagine, costing more than the penny which I pay for it. But my gratitude does not quite blind me to the ludicrous absurdity of an American citizen devoting his means to the laudation of an institution like that of hereditary legislators and to preaching that England should augment the size of her empire.—London Truth.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker' Catawaba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said that he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. I use it in my family for any sickness we are troubled with. I consider a bottle of it kept in the house equal to a physician in the family. J. Edward Lee, 236 North Seventh street, San Jose.

HOME SEEKERS WILL BE WELL REPAID by consulting me before selecting a home. A specialty made of improved farms near Fresno—homes which combine comfort with profit.

On account of forced sales during the late panic, and for other reasons, I am offer first-class property for half its real value.

Below are some rare bargains:

10 ACRES—2½ miles from Fresno: 4 acres in orchard and small fruit, balance ready to set out; fine garden soil. Buildings good and new. A very desirable home. Price $2500.

10 ACRES—All improved to orchard and vineyard; good buildings and a desirable home; 3 miles from Fresno, near Oleander. Price $1000.

60 ACRES—Mostly in full bearing vineyard and orchard; comfortable buildings; trays, boxes, implements and span of horses goes with the place; located between Sanger and Fowler, and best of soil. Price $5000.

40 ACRES Adjoining above in orchard, vineyard and alfalfa; new factory house; some personal property Price $1000.

50 ACRES—Highly improved; one mile from Fowler; will first-class; in full bearing orchard, vineyard and alfalfa, in nearly equal parts; fine, comfortable buildings and place in first class repair; $7000, former price $12,000.

40 ACRES Unimproved red land 2½ miles west of Fresno at $65 per acre.

25 ACRES—Unimproved land 2 miles from Fresno at $65 per acre.

260 ACRES—Fine river bottom land in bearing orchard, vineyard and alfalfa; new buildings; a rare bargain at less than half its cost; forced sale.

The above places are all desirable homes, well located as to schools and market, and in a high state of cultivation. If purchased before May 1, 1894, this season's crop will be included. At the average price paid for fruit and raisins there will then still pay from 10 to 20 per cent on the investment above expenses.

I have many other improved lands for sale at former prices of unimproved land.
